180 Days - Guided Tour of the Bible:

The plan offers a kind of bird's-eye-view. The daily readings consist of 180 selected passages, including at least one chapter from each of the Bible's 66 books. You can read both the chapter and its accompanying note in 15 minutes per day.

This "Guided Tour" is exactly that, a guide-assisted tour of the Bible's high points. Such a plan is no substitute for mastering the whole Bible, of course, but it may help lower barriers and point the way down a path for further study. Think of it as an introductory tour through a great art museum. You won't get to see every painting in the museum, but you will learn the basic layout, and may also acquire a taste for art that will entice you to return again and again.

With a few exceptions, the Biblical material appears in rough chronological order. You will read the psalms attributed to David as you read about David's life. You will read the prophets along with their background history. Portions from the Gospels, too, are interspersed, giving a composite picture of Jesus' life on earth; and Paul's letters are scattered throughout the record of his life. This arrangement should help convey the Bible's "plot."

Since "A Guided Tour" is arranged in 180 separate readings, most people will find it convenient to read one designated passage each day, along with the introductory notes. If you miss a few days, don't worry. Just resume reading when you can.
